Trusler & Son. That Trusler's Cream, that Trusler's Cream, Of all the creams it is the best; Its equal no one yet has seen.
In North or South, in East or West. It cares the chops, it cares the chafes, Afflictions of the skin removes; It beautifies the roughest face, And burns and blisters always soothes. For salt rheum, egzema and tetter, That give so many pain and grief; Nothing than this cream is better INSURANCE - DUVALL'S DRAPERY-HOUSE for 35c-Fringed Shades. To sooth, and cure and give relief. That Trusler's Cream, used once or twice, Upon the roughest kind of hands, Will make them soft, and smooth, and nice, As velvets of the tinest brands. That Trusler's Cream, it will not soil The finest fabric ever wove; It has no sticky, greasy oil, As using once will duly prove. You shave your face, it smarts with pain, Just put that Trusler's Cream thereon, And when you next shall shave again; You'll use that cream the face upon. That Trusler's Cream, it is not dear; The druggist it will you supply. You say to him: "My friend, see here That Trusler's Cream I've come to buy." You buy that cream, you use it once. It gives you such immense delight. You use it always after that, And think the druggist serves you right. INSURANCE.
